San Francisco to New York and Eu rope, vin the Tehuantepec route, was aken out on November 13 by the American Hawaiian liner Mexican Captain Tapley, bound for Salina Cruz, the Pacific terminal. The ves sel's cargo was of 12,120 tons dead weight, and consisted of large ship ments of dried fruit canned salmon canned goods, wine and beans.

A CABLE has been received here to he effect that the United States revnue cutter Thetis has sailed from San Francisco with destination as Honoiulu. The vessel left the California port yesterday. The Thetis may play an important part in policing some of the little islands lying adjacent to the Hawaiian group. The vessel is expected to pay a visit to bird poachers who are reported as carrying on seriwithin the jurisdiction of the Territory of Hawaii.

THE STEAMER W. G. HALL from Kauai ports is due to arrive at Honolulu tomorrow morning, bringing passengers and the usual lines of island freight and produce.

IT IS expected that the Oceanic steamship Alameda, with passengers and a full cargo, will show up off the port early Friday morning.

WIRELESS ADVICES are to the effect that the Matson Navigation liner Enterprise, sailing from San Francisco on Dec. 10, will arrive at Hilo on Saturday provided the elements continue favorable for her making her usual time.
